THE MASON & HAMLIN OR-GANS are not equalled by any organs made. They have proved the most durable in this country; over 1,800 purchasers in this Territory say so. The principal musicians in the Territory have bought them for their own use in preference to all others. They have taken the first prizes at all the World's Exhibitions over all competitors. They are acknowledged by the world's musicians to be the BEST CABINET ORGANS MADE in either Europe or America. E. P. Carpenter's Organs are ranking next in quality, and are scattered all over the world, and are sold by the largest dealers with the greatest satisfaction. I have a large stock of these instruments to select from, at greatly reduced prices. My stock of Pianos will be found unequalled in quantity, variety of

"Did She Die?"

"No; she lingered and suffered along, pining away all the time, for years, the doctors doing her no good; and at last was cured by this Hop Bitters the papers say so much about." "Indeed! indeed! how thankful we should be for that medicine."

Madame Cappiani.

Arrangements have been made by which this celebrated lady will give a concert at the Theatre on Tuesday evening, when the music lovers in this city will have the opportunity of enjoying a musical treat.

The lady has just returned from Montana, where she has been investing in real estate for her son, and while there was prevailed upon to favor the people of Butte with a concert.
This is what the Miner says:

This concert was attended Sunday evening by one of the most fashionable and critical audience ever assembled in Butte. It required but few notes from the "aria" of Handel, the first piece on the programme, to fully satisfy the audience that the performer was none other than the famous prima donna who had formerly ruled the operatic stage in Europe, Madame Louise Cappiani. For volume and compass of voice she has few equals anywhere, and for the execution of mezzo-soprano notes she has no superior anywhere. The concert was so well received that numerous requests were sent up for its repetition on Monday night; which the Madame was disposed to grant had not the weather on the succeeding day proved disagreeable. Mr.
C. W. Penrose, who appeared with Madame Cappiani in a duet, gave evidence that he had a remarkably fine and well cultivated voice. The Madame will return to her ranch near Benton in the latter part of next June, with some of her eastern pupils perhaps, who may wish to spend the summer in the mountains, when she will, if desired, give the music-loving portion of this community an opportunity of hearing her.

Murray's Appointees in Ogden.

There have been in the city, today, quite a number of gubernatorial appointees to various offices in this county, which are not vacant. They range all the way down from the probate judge to the constable. At 3 o'clock, this afternoon, the following gentlemen appeared at the office of Hon. F. D. Richards, Probate Judge of Weber County.

M. H. Beardsley and Edwin W.
Smout, appointed selectmen of the county; Oscar Vandercort, Sheriff; A. R. Heywood, prosecuting attorney of Weber County; R. W. Cross, county clerk; Thos. J. Black, justice of the peace for Ogden Precinct; Thos. Slater, justice of the peace for Slaterville Precinct.

These gentlemen were accompanied by Capt. Ransford Smith and James N. Kimball, Esq. They were received by His Honor with his characteristic affability and urbanity.
They tendered their official bonds and asked the judge to receive and file them.

Judge Richards received the bonds and stated that he would examine them and give his decision at 10 o'clock on Friday morning. The new candidates for official honors then withdrew, apparently much pleased with the interview.—Ogden Herald.

Davis County Convention.

At the county convention of Davis County, held in the court house, Farmington, September 27th, Lewis M. Grant was chosen president of the permanent organization; John Ellison, vice-president; B. H. Roberts, chaplain, and J. H.
Wilcox, secretary. Seventeen delegates were present. The delegates to the Territorial convention nominated in open convention, were Lewis M. Grant, A. S. Rose and Joseph Barton; alternates, John W.
Woolley, J. H. Wilcox and Peter Barton, all of whom were unanimously voted for. The convention then filled a vacancy in the county central committee, and adj
